Rio Rancho Couple Indicted by Grand Jury on Four Counts of Tax Evasion

BERNALILLO – On April 10, 2008, the Grand Jury of the Thirteenth Judicial District Court in Sandoval County indicted Gary Crosley and his wife, Anita Crosley, both of Rio Rancho, on two counts each of felony tax evasion.

In separate indictments, Mr. and Mrs. Crosley are charged with willfully attempting to evade or defeat their New Mexico Personal Income Taxes, or the payment thereof, for the tax years 2004 and 2005, in violation of Section 7-1-72 NMSA 1978.

If convicted, Mr. and Mrs. Crosley can each face the possibility of imprisonment of one year and a fine of $1,000 on each count. Rick Homans, Secretary of the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department, encouraged all New Mexicans to file their tax returns by the April 15 deadline. "Paying taxes is not only a legal requirement, it's a personal and moral responsibility," Homans said. "The taxes we pay allow us to provide basic services to all citizens, including education, public safety and healthcare."

The case was a result of an investigation by the New Mexico Taxation and Revenue Department's Tax Fraud Investigations Division, and is being prosecuted by the Thirteenth Judicial District Attorney's Office in Bernalillo.
